“ Dad, I am so sorry that the last few years of your life had so much suffering. You were truly a A-1 class act. Thank you so much for everything you did for me, and my family. You were always so reliable, dependable, and always thought about others before yourself. If I can be half the man you were, I guess I'll be okay. I will miss you. I will miss playing Golf with you and enjoy watching you look for golf balls. I will miss the tours of the Grand Strand. Most of all I will miss just knowing your only a phone call away. I know that you are now smiling down on us all with Mom. Love Rich##imported-begin##Rich Clement##imported-end##
