“ The first time I met Lloyd I knew he was special. The girls in the office would refer to him as "Uncle Lloyd" and would always greet him with a hug. Lloyd was always friendly and made sure that he always said Hello when he was in the building. He was a very caring man and we will miss him very much.##imported-begin##Regena Berg##imported-end##

“ Lora and Henry, I am so sorry for your loss. I just lost my Dad on December 28th and he left me with his habit of checking the paper for my name or a familiar one. It has been a long time since SHS, but my memory hasn't completely left me! I can more than imagine your feelings. My pastor says that God doesn't make mistakes, which is true. Just wanted you to know that you and your family are in my thoughts and prayers. Elaine Fullwood Morgan##imported-begin##Elaine Fullwood Morgan##imported-end##

“ Once in a lifetime, there comes along a gentle giant who touches and blesses everyone he meets. Lloyd was such a person. He always had a smile and a kind word for those he worked with. He will be greatly missed by many. My prayer is that you will find strength from the love you shared, that tears and grief give way to joy, and laughter returns in the form of cherished memories . It was my honor to know Lloyd and I will miss him greatly. Shirley Hart Accounts Payable Department Burroughs & Chapin, Inc.##imported-begin##Shirley Hart##imported-end##
