“ *Daddy, Daddy's hands were soft and kind but they were made of steel when I done wrong. But I have come to understand that us keeping you here on Earth was not part of God's plan. There are no words that can express the pain that I feel. I miss you terribly. I know that you are in a better place watching down on us and protecting us as you always have. Sickness took its toll on you but the years of love that you gave have left their mark on us. My memories with you will always be cherished. I know that I am sad right now because I am missing you, but I know that I will re-join with you one glorious day! I love you and miss you deeply.
