“ My prayers are with you and your family. Saying goodbye to someone we love is never easy, all we have now is the memory of moments shared â?? but, as Christians, we believe, that when God calls us to Him it is because we have completed our mission on earth and it is now time to celebrate and rejoice with Him in heaven - for a job well done.##imported-begin##Sonia Ryczak##imported-end##

“ Dear Auntie Hilda, Pam & Tom, My deepest, heartfelt sympathy to all of you dealing with the loss of Uncle Fran. I have only fond memories of spending time on the farm in New Hampshire with all of you! Every time we visit Danny in Greenfield and I see Mt. Monadnock, I remember all the fun I had with Pam as a younger cousin. You were all such an important part of my childhood! All of our prayers are with all of you, I hope time will gift you with happy memories and peace. Much love to all of you!
