“ I can't comprehend why. Why such a vibrant, loving, sweet man was taken but that is never for us to understand I suppose. I was lucky enough to meet Frank and Margie for their 50th wedding anniversary party. I have never been surrounded by such loving and friendly people. It was a beautiful time and a great time had by all but most of all, the love that Frank had for everyone; even me, a complete stranger, but most of all for his forever bride!

Thank you for the wonderful memories and allowing me to just say, I know that great man! You will be missed tremendously. RIP

Sincerely,

Sunny Rocha (Jeff Rocha's wife / Rose Rocha's daughter-in-law)

“ One of the best decisions my father made was choosing his childhood and best friend (his goombah) to be my Godfather. Uncle Frankie was more than my Godfather, he was a second father. Uncle Frankie mentored and disciplined me (and I needed it) as if I was one of his Sons. He was a great husband, father, grandfather, uncle and provider for his family. Uncle Frankie was a great role model to follow and he is part of the reason for me being the husband and father that I am today. There is so much that I can say and the one thing that always stuck with me that Uncle Frankie used to say was “You are never too old to kiss your Father”
God Bless Uncle Frankie

Frank was such a gentle person. I often heard stories from Marge about all the things Frank did with the family. He was such a great friend and role model for his relatives and all that he met and worked with. Marge, our thoughts and prayers are with you. So sorry we lost such a wonderful friend. He was always so happy with a great smile. I cherish my memories of all the good times we shared with our families. So we will dry our eyes and remember him as he used to be and remember the joys, the laughter, the smiles , he has gone to rest a little while. Dear Margie, Jackie, Sal and Arthur my thought and prayers are with you all and in time try to turn your grief into gratitude that he was in your lives. He will be greatly missed. With all my love, Cathey McKeone.

Heartbroken for all of you. He was and will remain the kindest, gentlest, funniest, generous, human being, friend and father, I have ever met. My childhood is filled with memories of the entire Coppola family and extended family. I am so very happy I had a chance to see him last year and tell him how much I loved him. Aunt Margie I love you and wish you peace and comfort most of all. Jackie, Arthur, Sal, Frankie and Tifani as well as all his beautiful grandchildren, my thoughts and prayers are will all of you. We were all so truly blessed to have had this wonderful, happy, smiling man in our lives. Hold on to your memories, be sad, grieve but not very long. Celebrate his life as he lived it: Happy, smiling, laughing, being silly, snacking, have a glass or two because he would want you to laugh, live and be happy. Take care of each other as he would have taken care of us. Much love to all of you always. Love, Nancy (Behnke) Grawunder
