

Frank J Fosco

October 3, 2009

Frank J. Fosco Dateline: Garden City, SC Frank J. Fosco, age 87, of Garden City, died Saturday, October 3, 2009 at Waccamaw Community Hospital. Born in Stowe, PA he was a son of the late Dominicoe and Stella Fosco. Mr. Fosco enlisted in the US Air Force after graduation and served as a gunner in England before WWII over Germany. He was shot down in Germany and was rescued by partisans. Mr. Fosco was then smuggled back to US held territory and sent back to Valley Forge, PA hospital for treatment of serious wounds. He used his GI schooling to open his own business and later trained for the police in Reading, PA. Mr. Fosco was a member of the Fraternal Order of Police Lodge #9 in PA and also Lodge #12 in Horry County. He was retired medically and moved to Surfside Beach, SC where he resided for over 38 years. Upon arrival in SC he worked in real estate for 25 years and met many people with whom he was still friends. He was a member of St. Michael Catholic Church in Garden City, SC. Mr. Fosco is preceded in death by two brothers, Edward and Joseph Fosco; and a sister Theresa Bowman. Survivors include his wife, Stella M. Fosco; sister-in-law, Jean Fosco of Myrtle Beach; niece, Terri Calif of Boyertown, PA; and a nephew, Jeffrey Fosco of Collegeville, PA. Memorial services will be private. Memorial donations may be made to the American Cancer Society, 950 48th Ave. North, Ste. 101, Myrtle Beach, SC 29577. Goldfinch Funeral Home, Beach Chapel is in charge of the arrangements.

Tribute Wall

“ Our sympathies go out to the family for the loss of their Frank. May God keep a watch over you and help you cope with your loss. God bless wife Stella as she continues her stay at NHC. We know she will miss him deeply. He fought a couragous battle and now is in Gods hands. We will miss our dear friend. Sincerely, Moe & Marge Deets##imported-begin##Richard & Marjorie Deets##imported-end##

---

October 08, 2009 at 10:44 AM