“ It's been 7 years Dad and I miss you dearly. Though i may not have always followed your advise, i had always been paying close attention to every lesson you tried to instill. All your words were heard and all the wisdom you tried to teach me are remembered and i will carry them forward. You will always be loved, cherished and remembered by me. I am grateful to have you as my father. Forever...
Your daughter, Denise.

“ I had a brother for 72 years.... and, now I am alone in my generation. We played, we teased, we lived, and we loved. And, now, I will miss our conversations. As he would say, he finally got his "cloud." RIP Frank.

“ To My Dear Uncle / Godfather Frank,
Loving memories flood my mind growing up with our family functions and all the ups & downs families go through. You were a strong minded person that cared for the family, to no end. You will be missed and loved always. I send my deepest condolences to my Aunt, cousins, father (Frank's younger Brother) & all friends of the family. My heart breaks but I know that you are in a better place with no pain, sorrow or worries.
I will always remember you Love always
Robert C Janiszewski, Jr.
