“ MARK AND VICTOR, YOUR FATHER WHO I CALLED "POPS" WAS A GREAT MAN. I CALLED HIM "POPS" BECAUSE THATS WHO HE REMINDED ME OF. ALWAYS WITH A SMILE ON HIS FACE, AND ALWAYS ASKING HOW WAS MY DAY, THEN READY TO GIVE ME A HUG. THE TIMES THAT I HAVE BEEN AROUND FRANKIE I HAVE NEVER SEEN HIM IN A BAD MOOD. HE WAS A ANGEL, THE KIND OF MAN WHO WAS,CARING, LOVING, HELPFUL, FUNNY, SMILING, GREAT COOKER, ALL AROUND WONDERFUL MAN. GOD NOW NEEDED HIS ANGEL IN HEAVEN WHERE HE WILL CONTINUE BEING THE WONDERFUL MAN THAT HE HAS ALWAYS BEEN. I KNOW THAT EVERYONE AT NANCES CREEKFRONT RESTAURANT WILL MISS HIM DEARLY. ESPECIALLY AT SUPER BOWL UNTIL WE MEET AGAIN "POPS" WE ALL LOVE YOU!!! MARK YOUR FATHER WAS A WONDERFUL MAN, WHO RAISED A WONDERFUL SON. WE ARE ALL HERE FOR YOU AND WE LOVE YOU.##imported-begin##NICKI MAZZELLA/SIRBAUGH##imported-end##

“ Frankie taught me how to fry okra and how to make awesome gravy, but more importantly he taught me the gift of patience. His joy was infectious and his heart always had room for one more. He will always dwell in our hearts and our home.Lord, love a duck. He's gone off and left me still owing for his last two haircuts.Guess I'll just have to wait a little longer for that fried chicken. Mark and Victor I hope you both know how special your dad was and still is to us. Our home/garage is always open and we hope you'll come see us whenever you can. We love you both. “ Frankie was a great man. He was a blessing to be with, wheather it at a myf campout when we were young or a fish fry on sunset drive, he was always the most jovial and high spirited man. I will miss seeing him very much. Mark and Victor, I know that he felt the world about y'all. When I would sit with him on his front porch, y'all are all he would talk about. I am so sorry, and If there is anything that y'all need, just give me a call. 843-902-2602###imported-begin###Daniel O'Sullivan and Family###imported-end###

“ Mark and Victor, Please accept my sincere condolences. Your Dad always had a smile on his face & had something either kind or ridiculous to say!! It was aways a pleasure to see him. When all y'all were little, he embodied the "cool MYF or ballgame parent" and you kids surrounded him! We were all blessed to have known him. Thanks for sharing him with us; I know your loss is large. Thinking of you.###imported-begin###Jan Ford Bodkin###imported-end###
