“ I met Frank years ago while I worked in the Investigative Division in the Solicitor's Office. He was very knowledgeable about all aspects of IT, and went out of his way to help solve "Special Needs" within my department. He always had kind words and and a smile. He will be sorely missed.

“ Frank and I had a lot in common: Allentown, radio in Central NY, hate of cold weather, cheesesteaks, and chuckled for years over songs we played. He never forgot his thought that “Hold Me, Thrill Me, Kiss Me” was by actress Nell Carter, instead of the actual singer—Mel Carter. We laughed about that for years. Jack Moran heard Frank on WLFH and we decided to hire him on Oldies 102. We became close friends. Very saddened at the news.
