“ My name is Sallie Sasser Glover. We are cousins on my dad's (Phillip Dyches Sasser) side. My grandmother was Martha Dyches Sasser from Clover, Va, then Conway.. I believe Frank's grandfather and Martha's grandfather were brothers.

I've known your dad for many years, coming through the the bank drive thru when I was 22 and my Grandmother Martha had just passed away, announcing we were cousins and sharing his condolences. Made my life a little sweeter, and all these years later, continued to do so.

I've seen him a lot in the last 10 years. My dad passed away, and Frank was my ray of sunshine when we would have lunch or run into each other. He looked so much like my dad...same head, body, hair, hairline, and ears...those Dyches genes are strong! We always left with hugs and "love ya's".

So, I'm really going to miss Frank! My life is going to be a little less sweet with him gone. I know he's with your beloved mom, and what a beautiful reunion that has been! For now, I'll leave him with a hug in my heart and a "love ya's" until I see him again.

I'd love to connect with all of you. I'm on Facebook.

“ Frank was such a wonderful, kind and generous person. He touched my heart so deeply with the genuine love and care he had for all people. I loved his smile and his great personality! I was his and Mildreds friend and hairstylist over the past years. I love them both dearly. Mildreds passing was such an extremely sad thing. Frank and her were such a bright light every where they went, and always laughing and having fun. I knew Frank was very sad after her passing and we talked about it every time I saw him, we also laughed about all the good times we all had together. I loved to hear him tell stories about his childhood and fun things he and Mildred did. Also he kept me up to date on the gamecocks! I know, with all my heart, that Frank is so very, VERY happy right this minute! He is up in heaven with the Lord, Mildred and all his other loved ones and friends that have gone to be with the Lord. His knees no longer hurt him, his hearing is restored and he is made completely whole. I will miss him so very much and am sad. But I am also very happy for him! He was a Godly man and he is reaping the reward he so greatly deserves! Ken and I both want to say ..we love you Frank and miss you. We look forward to seeing you again one day. Our thoughts and prayers go out to all his daughters, grandchildren, family and friends. This world was a much better place with Frank in it. He will be missed more than words can say.

“ Offering my sympathy to the family. I truly enjoyed getting to know him at our cousins' dinners, especially laughing and joking with him. He was a kind and gentle old soul. We will miss his humor at the dinners.

“ Sadly there will be an empty chair at our monthly parties, Frank will be truly missed. Frank was a quiet, kind, soft spoken man, but could always come up with a comment that would make us all laugh. He was a true friend who could light up a room with his smile. Our sympathy to Frank's family.
