“ My dearest extended family- CSM Harrison was my 3rd cousin 3x removed. I'm working on our family history. I wish to send my condolences to you. As I read his obituary I could not help but to remember what I told my sons JROTC senior instructor one day- Old soldiers don't ever die. We fade into the background until called again to serve. I'm quite sure CSM Harrison would agree with me- for I'm like him in a way, I'm an Army veteran (only I served in peace time), I was very definitely involved with my sons's high school JROTC unit- for 7 years, and I'm currently working as a substitute teacher in middle and high schools here In Volusia County, Florida. I would have loved to have sat down and shared coffee with CSM. Just remember, as I learned over time- our family members will always be with us- especially when we keep their memories alive. I know my own Dad, another Army veteran and ya'lls 2nd cousin, died in 1998 - 3 months before my husband did. I know that Papa still watches over me, and definitely guided me when rearing my sons.

Take care, know that though we've never met I love you.
