“ Freddie was a wonderful friend of my father, Walter T. West, Jr. I rarely had the pleasure of visiting with Freddie since I live far away, but I know that he was a warm and loving person and I appreciate the friendship that they shared. My thoughts and prayers are with all the family and close friends at this time. Sonja West

“ Our hearts and prayers go out to you in this time of great loss. We are comforted with knowing that he is resting with Jesus, now. Freddie was loved by everyone who knew him. Though not a preacher, he preached many great lessons that were sermons and manna for our souls! Please remember that we are here for you if you need us. We love you!##imported-begin##Caroline Hiatt & daughter Janice Crosby##imported-end##

“ Dear Opal, My prayers are with you, Mike and Colby and family now during Freddie's homecoming. I remember when you two dated when you were my back door neighbor. You married, grew spiritually, became wonderful parents, then grandparents. It's those memories, 'the DASH' he lived that you can be proud of and hang on to. He was a good man who loved the Lord. May God's loving grace and peace carry you through this difficult time. I love you. Robin McCormick Simmons###imported-begin###Robin McCormick Simmons###imported-end##

“ I am sorry to hear of Freddie's passing. I enjoyed the friendship I shared with him through Kiwanis. He reflected his relationship he had with God through listening to him pray in our club meetings. One of the last times Freddie prayed, many good news dollars were given for his prayers. I whispered to him that I knew that he wasn't talking to us when he prayed. Freddie told me, "You and both know that don't we." We will miss a fine gentleman in Kiwanis and in the community of believers throughout Conway. Our loss is heaven's gain.##imported-begin##Gary Reeves##imported-end##
