“ So sorry for your loss of your father and friend. Fred was my tailgate buddy at Towson Football games, when our sons played together. He was funny, entertaining, knowledgeable and enthusiastic not a bad tailgater either. He like all the parents rooting hard for the Tigers and their sons. I feel terrible we lost track of each other, life after Football.
I'm happy the boys, all of them had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Fred Davis, I know I am. You will be missed. RIP Fred. 🙏

“ We have been neighbor's 64 years and have cleaned the house for @ 20 years. I remember when he rode his horse and the cider block barn in the field. Fred sent a donation to Howard County Public Food Service to help students pay for lunches several years ago. He was a storyteller. and He and his father enjoyed his man cave as his mom called it. Many times, I would find them both there enjoying a drink, discussing or watching sports and catching up on reading the paper. I can remember Hazel call Fredric when she had something to say to her husband and Freddie to her son. He was a was always watching the political, financial news and reading the opinion columns in the Washington Post. He took a lot of care of the lawn fertilizing it, remarking how green it looked in the spring and enjoyed planting wax begonias in the back yard flower beds. I will miss his company All of you are in my thoughts and prayers Esther Brian
