“ Dear Mrs. Sulik & Family: I attended eight years of school at St. Cecilia's with Ronald. I recall visiting Ronald at his home during one of his extended absences. I was sorry to hear of Ronald's passing and would like you to know that I deeply admired him and his parents for their courage and good will. It was an honor to have known Ronald and his loving parents. Sincerely, Joe McKim##imported-begin##Joseph A. McKim##imported-end##

“ To the Family of Frederick Sulik: Please accept my sympathy at the loss of your dear loved one. The grief you are now experiencing is very natural. Jesus called death an "enemy" 1 Corinthians 15:26, and he himself even expressed his grief by giving way to tears when his friend Lazarus died. However, Jesus also said at John 5:28, 29 that the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out to a resurrection. What a wonderful time of reunion that will be! At Revelation 21:3, 4, we find the heart-warming promise that God "will wipe every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." I hope that these words of encouragement from the Bible can help to soothe the pain you are now feeling.
