“ I know from our talks you missed your friends and family so much. You missed being able to play your steal guitar because you said your hands didn't work like they use to but every now and then you'd take out your guitar and try to strum a few notes for me.

Thank you for the time we got to share together over the last 2 years, letting me listen to your favorite recorded CD of you and your band playing live while you sat in your favorite comfy chair. It was definitely a pleasure getting to know you in the short time we had together. I'll miss you.

Rest In Peace Fred.

“ So saddened to hear the passing of Mr. Fred Thomas, my longtime friend. He was a great man that was respected by all. He was a Navy WWII Veteran, a family man, the owner-operator of a successful air conditioning business, a talented musician, and a Christian gentleman. My late dad, Fred Morris Sr, and I played music with Mr. Fred many times, especially my dad. They were best of friends. He was awesome on a steel guitar. God blessed him in so many ways. Mr. Fred lived to be 96 years old and got to see a lot in his days on earth. His wonderful family can take comfort knowing that he is resting in peace with his lovely wife in God's loving care. Loving thoughts, condolences and prayers are with the family. God bless.

“ I'm sorry for your loss of your father and grandfather. I always enjoyed hearing him play his guitar. I missed your mama, now I'll miss both of them. Daddy had fond memories of the days together with Pie, his childhood buddy.
