“ For 17 years Fred and I served together at Norwood United Methodist Church. He was my favorite soloist, always ready to serve when asked and willing to sing a song I requested that fit my sermon topic. When Fred retired, he moved to Myrtle Beach and worked on a golf course. Each year he invited me to Myrtle Beach for a week of free golf. He said I inspired him, for his scores were great when I was with him. On one occasion, he teed off on a par 3; the ball landed on the left side of the green and rolled right to go into the cup for a hole in one. I was glad Fred could be with us at Brave's Spring Training for his final Spring. Fred and I were more than church workers, we were great friends. I shall miss him greatly. My prayers are with Lynn, Rick and the entire family. May God comfort you at this difficult time.##imported-begin##Rev. Robert Linthicum##imported-end##
