

Fredrick J Bell

March 8, 1945 - January 17, 2020

Fredrick J Bell, age 74, passed away on Friday, January 17, 2020.

He was born March 8, 1945 in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. He was a resident of Murrells Inlet, South Carolina where he retired with his longtime partner Georgette Shorraw.

Fred is survived by his only child, daughter Catherine DePasquale, her husband Joseph DePasquale, two grandsons Joseph and Anthony DePasquale of Wrightsville, Pennsylvania, his loving sister Letitia Vallo and her husband David Vallo of Sun City Center, Florida and by many nieces and nephews.

Ask anyone and they will say that Fred was just a kind soul. A wonderful, loving man who would do anything for you. He sadly lost his partner of over 30 years, Georgette, just a few months before his passing. Her loss deeply impacted him. Fred was a veteran who served his country, in the army, during the Vietnam War. He was a former US Steel employee. Fred loved cheeseburgers, playing cards with his neighborhood friends and his weekly Thursday night chats with his sister, Tish. He will be deeply missed.

A special thank you to Paula and Craig Daisey, loving neighbors, that did so much for him and our family during a difficult time. The family gives them their greatest gratitude.

A viewing will be held on Saturday, January 25,2020 from 11AM-1PM at Goldfinch Funeral Home on Frontage Road Murrells Inlet.

Tribute Wall

SR

“ *Dear Fred's Family,
Our thoughts and prayers go out to you with sincere sympathy.
Dot Simmons & Susan*

Susan Ryan - January 20, 2020 at 12:53 PM

SR

“ *Susan Ryan lit a candle in memory of
Fredrick J Bell*

Susan Ryan - January 20, 2020 at 12:37 PM