“ Our condolences to Mrs. Carolyn and family, Mr. Todd was a such a kind, Christian man. He and the family run a business that is still in operation because of his children and dedicated workers who remain working hard every day for those in Conway. My mother, sister, and I were so fortunate to know that we had Mr. Todd who would work on our cars and let us know what needed be to replaced for the car to run appropriately. We had to put our trust in him to let us know when we needed new tires or if we could drive a few more miles on the ones we had. My sister and I both drove cars to college that Mr. Todd serviced, and he gave my mother peace of mind that we were going to be traveling in a car that was safe. I'm sure there were others in Conway in our position who had to depend on Mr. Todd to be "the man" to take care of their automobile needs as well. This is a testimony of his Christian works that he performed on a daily basis. He is so fortunate to have raised children who are repeating the actions of their father who taught them to be active Christians in their daily works.

“ We were saddened to learn of Mr. Freeman Todd's passing. He was truly a godly man and is now resting in peace in the arms of our Savior. It was my honor to know Mr. Freeman and have him work on several of my vehicles before his retirement. He developed an outstanding auto repair business in Conway that has stood the test of time and his legacy has continued under the leadership of his son Junior. Our prayers are with his family and employees of Main Street Auto during this time of great loss.

Rest in Peace.

“ I remember when I was real young living in Pinecrest Subdivision in Conway. Uncle Freeman lived on the other side of it. Sundays after church I would go over and Uncle Freeman, Junior and I would go ride mini bikes down the dirt road behind the subdivision. I will never forget those times.

“ *Dear Family,
I am sure that you never knew me, but I knew Freeman very well, and he was a dear friend. In the early seventies, I pastored the Conway Assembly of God Church, and purchased all my gas there at his station during the three years of my being in Conway. He also always did any work that was needed on my car. I have thought of him often down through the years.
I came to love and appreciate Freeman, and also his brother that worked for him (Harvey, I believe). Family, may Our Heavenly Father, through Jesus Christ our Lord, lift you up and give you comfort during this time of grief and sadness.*

Very sincerely,

“ Our sincere condolences to the entire family. He was a friend to all people all of the time. He certainly knew about how to keep a vehicle running and he was very truthful in letting the customer know of the problems he found. He will be missed by many.
