“ Dear Mary and family,

We loved Mr. Fritz and we know that he will be missed. The many Sundays spent taking him to church were a tremendous blessing. Mr. Fritz taught us that there was a "pink" light in the stop light also. He would remind Renee that she had said she wasn't playing doodlebug as well. And the cane that was referred to as his "woman grabber" to which he would say "I wouldn't know what to do with one if I caught one" was always funny, no matter how many times I called it that. His sense of humor will never be forgotten. His boldness to tell the truth was, well, bold! His love for family was evident. But, his desire to attend church (when so many others would have used the "excuses" he could truthfully claim) was the greatest of all his characteristics. It was an honor to know the man we affectionately called "Mr. Fritz"!

*You all will be in our prayers, love in Christ,
Kevin & Renee Braswell*

“ Fritz was the brother I never had. He was kind to me and took me under his wing. We had many good times together racing boats or riding motorcycles
My heart is filled with sadness at the loss of a one of a kind person. God Bless the family and friends.

May God give comfort and peace to the family and friends. I am Sammy's wife and when we visited him over the last years I so enjoyed Mr. Fritz's sense of humor. Marjorie Sarvis
