“ In Loving Memory of Gail Sims

On behalf of the Caldwell family, I would like to extend our deepest sympathy and heartfelt condolences to the family, friends, and colleagues of Gail Sims.

I had the honor of working closely with Gail (from 2017 to 2023) in the world of Acquisitions and Contracting. Over those six years, she became much more than just a coworker — she became a mentor, a friend, and a steady presence.

Gail had a rare gift; a nurturing, down-to-earth spirit that made people feel instantly at ease. She had a way of welcoming you in, like family, even if you had just met. But don't get it twisted, if someone stepped out of line, she'd bark... And if necessary, she'd bite. Gail didn't play games. She was compassionate, firm, direct, and always real and we loved her for that.

Her guidance, her humor, her no-nonsense approach, and her fellowship will forever be remembered.

She will be truly missed.

With Love and Light,

- Edd Caldwell Jr.

“ I had the privilege of working alongside Gail for almost a year, but it didn't take long for her to leave a lasting impression on me. She was the kind of person who infused warmth into every conversation, whether we were discussing work or just catching up on life. Gail had a calm, genuine spirit and a quiet strength that made her easy to talk to and even easier to admire.

She was always ready to help, with no hesitation and no fanfare, just pure kindness and a genuine desire to support others. It's rare to meet someone who can make a meaningful impact in such a short time, but that was Gail. She genuinely cared, and it showed in everything she did.

I'm grateful for the time we shared, and I will miss her dearly. My heart goes out to her family, friends, and all who were lucky enough to know her.

Rest peacefully, Gail.

For Gail's family – my deepest sympathy.

I had the privilege of working with Gail for an extremely short period of time – less than one month – but what an impression she made on me. Gail and I just clicked. It is not often that I meet someone who makes an impression on me – but Gail sure did. I am only sorry that I didn't spend a little more time getting to know her even better. She was special. My heart goes out to you.

*Deepest condolences,
