“ Gale, words can't begin to describe the special bond the 2 of us had. When God made you he knew you were going to be a beautiful flower. I'm honored to have known you and to have called you not just my friend and neighbor but my family. I'm sad out time here on earth is over but I know your rejoicing in such a glorious place, one will not experience until we get there. I have no doubt your up there in the circle of all your friends and family. Your no doubt one of God's most remarkable flowers. I love you Gale. Until we meet again. My prayers go out to her children and Tommy and all those that loved her.
