“ Judy and family, I am so sorry to hear about Ms. Garnette. I just found out about it. I've been out of town. She was a very special lady and my heart hurts for you. I love all of you and know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. I may be able to make it to the funeral. Again, I am so sorry. I pray that God will comfort your hearts because I know he is the only one that can. God bless all of you and give you strength and peace during this very difficult time. “ Mr. Johnson, Judy and Family, So sorry to bear of your loss. Mrs. Johnson worked beside Peoples National Bank where my Mother worked. I knew of Mrs. Garnette then and heard of her being so sick just this past Wednesday at Prayer meeting at North Conway Baptist Church. Know that she is resting in a much better place now and free of pain. You will always have the memories. Your family will be lifted up in Prayer.
