“ Gary, I can remeber us being in grade school together, and you always trying to make us laugh. As we grew older and I would get to see you at Robert and Sue's, there was a small part of that young boy from grade school still there that I will always remeber. I'm sure you have them laughing in heaven now. Your friend, Judy Counts Sink###imported-begin###Judy Counts Sink###imported-end##

“ Gary, I can't believe Im writting this, with tears in my eyes. When I was fighting Cancer you were so concerned. I have always loved you, and as a kid I idolized you as a man in war fighting for someone else's freedom. I will always remember in W.Va your banjo playing. Oh how I will miss your emails. And pray for your family in this time of grief. Love forever, Tammy McCown###imported-begin##Tammy McCown###imported-end##

“ I will miss you Goger. From all of the fun times we shared when I was little like eating chocolate turtles and you telling me they were going to bite me, and telling me your car could fly and I believed it!to seeing you just this past spring. Your humor and views of life showed the type of unique, loving, caring person you really were. I will miss our times together but I know you are in a better place. Susan, David, Chrissie and Michael, if there is anything I can do at your time of greif please let me know. I am just a phone call away. I miss you and love you all. “ Gary - You were there for me at a time when I had no one. You rode the bus from Charleston to Columbus and drove me and my junk heap car to your home where I lived for many months. I enjoyed discussing history, politics and religion with you. I learned so much from you and I especially admired your patience and humility. You drove me to work and to witness meetings. I stood by your side witnessing from door to door. You laughed at me when I came home drunk from a JW party -- you kept an open mind and didn't punish me. You were fair, honest, kind, decent and provided me with a positive male role model and father figure. You lived an honorable and virtuous life. Although we drifted apart in recent years, I carried my respect and admiration for you close to my heart. I will miss and remember you with fondness always. You finally have the answers - I will be expecting you to explain them to me when I see you again. Love you, Deb###imported-begin##Debbie Bracknell###imported-end##

“ Gary, I have only met you a few times in my life but the few times were happy ones. We would talk of music and the guitar. You always had a smile on your face and love in your heart. You will be missed by many and seen again by all. Sincerely, Devin Clifton P.S. The guitar IS harder than the piano!
