“ Mema, I cannot believe you are gone. You were my hero. And I will never forget the memories we shared together. I had the best days of my life when I spent them with you. You made just sitting around on the couch watching an old tv show fun. I will never forget the endless amount of things you taught me. Mema, you were the strongest woman I know, and I want to be just like you when I get older. I love you more than words can express.##imported-begin##Dara Shelley##imported-end##

“ I would like to extend my sincerest condolences to the family of Genette Miller. Losing a spouse and a mother is a devastating experience that tests our faith and reliance on God. This is the time to lean on God through his word to help you cope with the deep emotions all of you are going through. Each one of you will cope with the loss of Genette differently depending on the relationship you had with her. You may at times not know what to say or do. Decisions will be difficult to make and shouldn't be made quickly. That is where God's word helps us. At Psalm 46:1 we read: God is for us a refuge and strength. A help that is readily to be found during distresses. Isn't that a wonderful thought? At a time of crisis in our lives, God's word is telling you to remember that he will be your refuge and strength. Jesus Christ offered up his life as a ransom sacrifice for us so that we all could have the hope of the resurrection. What a wonderful time that will be. The word resurrection literally means a standing up again. The resurrections recorded in the Bible give us evidence that this can and will occur. Recalling the resurrection of Jesus' dear friend Lazarus, Jesus said, 'Lazarus, come out!?' Imagine the joy when Lazarus, who was dead four days, was awoken from his sleep, to be reunited with his family again. Genette will also hear his voice and come back to you. Taking some time to meditate on the following scriptures will bring you peace and hope for the future. I truly do hope this will help all of you cope with this time in your lives. John 5:28,29; Revelation 21:4 and John 11:11-44 My prayers are with you.##imported-begin##Suzanne Lombardo##imported-end##
