“ Debbie & Mark, Butch & Sandi, JohnRay & family; what a life "Aunt Sally" lived....she was the life of the party in every way;from her smile, laughter, love, her crazy dances and mostly her heart.....she lit up the room. We will all miss her just like Uncle J.V., but now they are together again and what a wonderful day they are having with Larry, Mike and all of their many loved ones. I know it is hard to let her go but remember she is where we all live to be. I am still not up to funerals yet...I am sorry for that...please understand...but you all are in my heart and in my prayers. I love you all so much....Cindy, Ryan & Mandi, Rhett & Sayla##imported-begin##Cindy Bellamy Ammons##imported-end##

“ Debbie, Butch I sincerely pray, hope, and wish that you all do not suffer or grieve. Your mom is where she lived a long time to go. Think she has more friends, and loved ones on the other side than left here (this helped carry me thru when mine passed). I know words or tears cannot ever ease the burden, but thru God's help all of you will find comfort. I'm still looking for comfort everyday, I know all of you loved my parents as we loved yours also.###imported-begin###robert shelley###imported-end##

Such a sweet lady, and very smart about how to put up corn on the cob for the freezer. I have passed this recipe on to everyone that talks about putting up corn for the freezer. “ We send our love to all of you!!!! Geneva was one of the best women I know, she had a heart of gold. We would not have what we have today if it were not for JV & Geneva giving us a chance. He said we looked like a good, trusting couple and he would help us with our property and we're still here 28 years later. Of course they were paid off many years ago, but we will NEVER forget the love and kindness that they showed to us and our children over all of those years. Just like JV is Geneva also will be sadly missed. But we must forget our selfish wishes that they were still here with us, since they both are with our Lord and free of all pain and their hearts & souls are one again now that they are walking hand in hand in God's world and we will all be there with them one day. WE LOVE YOU GENEVA!!!##imported-begin##Jamie & Sandy Lynn##imported-end##

“ Dear Ammons Family: I am so very sorry for your loss. May God comfort and support each of you. The death of a beloved family member is one of life's most difficult experiences. This is a sorrow that Jehovah God Himself will truly one day remove- (Revelation 21:3-5). In His written word, the Holy Bible, He has promised through His son, Jesus, that 'the time is coming when all in the memorial tombs will be resurrected to life again' (John 5:25, 26, 28, and 29; John 11:24, 25). Afterwards, 'death, sickness, old age and wickedness will be defeated, removed' from earth- forever (Isaiah 25:8; Isaiah 33:24; Job 33:25; Psalms 37:9-11, 29)! May these promises console you, fortify your hope, and help you to cope (Romans 15:4). You have my deepest sympathy.##imported-begin##Tammy Johnson##imported-end##

“ All the memories I have and I can't think of where to start. My Grandma, was one of a kind. You could ask anyone that and they would probably tell you the same. There is nothing that she wouldn't do for her family. She loved us all so much. The energy she had was amazing! I will never forget the talks we had sitting in the swing under the carport drinking a bottled coca cola or her cackling laughter as she would walk through the front door and bust out a jig and sing a song to let us no she was there. There are just so many memories I have that I will always hold very dear to my heart. I love You Grandma!##imported-begin##Ashlee Rogers##imported-end##
