“Daddy it's me Clay, I miss you more than anything in this world. It's been 7 years since you have been gone. I remember all the times you said to me that I would really miss you when you were gone. I would do anything just to see you again Daddy. You were the one and only greatest, smartest man that I know nobody could ever take your place. I love you more than you will ever know. There is not a day goes by that I don't think about you, I can't wait until we get to see each other again. I love you Daddy walk the streets of gold you deserve every bit of what pleasure Jesus Christ had planned for you when he took you with him. ❤️

“ I would like to extend my condolences to the friends and family of George Bryant. I am truly sorry for the loss of your loved one. Times like this can be really challenging and full of much pain. However, we can look to God's Word the Bible as a source of comfort. One comforting scripture can be found at Isaiah 25:8 which tells us that soon God will swallow up all of death and wipe the tears from all faces. This is definitely a time that we can look forward to.
