

George Edward Evans

July 3, 2006

Murrells Inlet George Edward Evans, age 82 of Indigo Creek died Monday, July 3, 2006 at his home. Born October 23, 1923 in Batavia, NY, he was the son of the late George Edward and Zilpha Towne Evans. Mr. Evans was a World War II veteran serving in the US Army. He was an engineering graduate from the University of Buffalo and was regional sales manager for Zurn Industries and Ryan Associates. A lifelong Episcopalian, he was a member of the Church of the Resurrection where he was a dedicated usher and greeter for the 8:00 parishiners. Mr. Evans moved to S.C., nine years ago. He loved to play golf and was a member of Indigo Golf Clubs and on February 15 had his last hole in one. He was also a member of Plainfield Curling Club for 28 years. He enjoyed mentoring at St. James school, he volunteered with Meals on Wheels, helped raise money for the Long Bay Symphony and also helped build houses for Habitat for Humanity. The most fun for him was being a bus boy for the VFW on Friday nights. He loved life and involved himself in it. He was a true gentleman at all times. Surviving are his wife of 55 years, Beverly Evans; daughter, Jessica Palazzi and husband, William of FT. Collins, Colorado and grandchildren, Nicholas and Gina Palazaai both of Ft. Collins, Colorado and special friends, Mo and Squeake. Services will be 11:00 AM, Friday at Episcopal Church of the Resurrection with Father Robert Caswell officiating. Memorials may be made to Episcopal Church of the Resurrection, PO Box 14548, Surfside Beach, SC 29587 or Incare Hospice, 1109 Memorial Drive, Georgetown, SC 29440.;
