“ Today as you gather together with family and friends to remember the life of George Anderson, encourage each other with the hope of the resurrection recorded for us in God?s Word the Bible. John 5: 28,29 God?s word guarantees a resurrection for all those who have fallen asleep in death.Acts 17:31 Jesus Christ resurrected his dear friend Lazarus as a sign to all those present that he has the power to fulfill God?s purpose for mankind. John 11:11-44 God created us with a desire to live and enjoy life here on earth. Ecclesiastes 3:11 That is all He ever wanted for us. George is now awaiting his resurrection. Though this is a sad time, it is also a time to look forward. Look to the future with confidence and hope. Imagine the day you will see George again, just like Martha and Mary saw Lazarus again. He will be well and full of life! What a wonderful gift God has given us! I hope you will take some time to meditate on the scriptures above to find comfort. My thoughts and prayers are with you at this time.##imported-begin##Suzanne Lombardo##imported-end##

“ Dear Ann,With deep sadness, my mother Betty and brothers Stu, Greg and Jeff Anderson- our thoughts are with you at this time of loss. To our cousins, we are sorry not to be able to share this sad time with you, and will always have fond memories of times spent with you and your parents. Your father is now in a place with no pain with his other family members who have passed. Love Patty, Stu, Greg and Jeff Anderson and Betty Anderson##imported-begin##Patricia Anderson Lucas##imported-end##

“ *It's been many years since I have seen most of your family, with the exception of Ronnie who lives close to me, but I have many fond memories of growing up in Sackets Harbor and seeing many of you on a daily basis. All my thoughts and prayers are with you at this difficult time. Most of you are many miles away from here now, but the memories remain very close. All my deepest sympathy and best wishes.
