“ Dear Jordan Family, Bud's gentleness, humor and wood crafting skills were really outstanding. He was a good man, something not easily said about most, and I'm sure he is with God now. May you feel his love from above and may special blessing surround you during this difficult time. I wish I could be at his memorial with you all. Know that I am with you in spirit. Hope everything goes well. With love + prayers, Nancy###imported-begin###Nancy R. Johnson###imported-end###

“ Dear Cathy CAT Please accept our condolences. Bud was a special person and we cared for him. His dry humor was always what made us laugh. I am sorry that he will not be helping you with the dishes. He was a great husband. I loved all the wood crafts that he made for you and for others. I know I will cherish mine. He will watch you do your craft work from the heavens above. We love you and and have you in our prayers. Freddie, Maria, Carmen and Carlos.##imported-begin##Freddie & Maria Chong##imported-end##

“ Cathy and Family-The family and I are so sorry to hear about Bud.I will always remember that twinkle in his eye when he was talking to me and was trying to be so serious. The family and I often talk about the time the boys and their fathers were playing football in the road and Bud told me he didn't want them playing there because he didn't want his car damaged. I told him that their fathers would never allow them near his car and he informed me that he didn't have foorball insurance on his car. I told him we would find somewhere else for them to play and they ended up in our back yard. He had that devilish twinkle in his eye though. I hope to make the service Cathy.##imported-begin##Peg Peters and Family##imported-end##
