“ George, you taught me how to cook pizza on a grill. I didn't even know such a glorious event existed! You even convinced me that I did a good job. Thanks for memories you've provided me and my family. We'll miss you. Love, Eric, Kelly, Riley, and Owen Peterson.

“ The weekend after Lauries wedding my husband and I went to visit George and Betty. We wanted to take them out to supper fir all they did at the wedding. George wouldn't have it, he made us Chicken Parmesan that 'didn't suck'. We sat and talked to him for hours. I'm truly blessed to have spent that time with him and enjoyed listening to all of his stories.
Betty, you are in our thoughts and prayers. We love you. Tami & Charlie “ George was a friend and a neighbor. He was always quick with the clever response, and we had a lot of fun teasing him, and enjoying his company at the Club House after golf.

We will miss him greatly, but I am sure he will see Armand Cocuzza soon (his buddy), and enjoy crabbing again with him. I am sure he is finally at rest.

Our prayers are with George and his family.

“ George was a very likeable guy. When we moved into Tradition we met as he drove by on his small scooter while I was in the yard. Since Faye & I retired from a town very close where he grew up it was always enjoyable to chat about our lives n NJ. My first round of golf at Tradition was with George and although he could no longer golf I think he enjoyed riding with me that day. Our Monday and Wednesday golf leagues will miss having him there after our rounds to share a drink.

Sincere condolences to Betty and their family.

“ When I firsts came to visit my friends in Tradition back in 2004, I was introduced to George at the Tradition Golf course.

The conversation was " spirited" to say the least, but I found George to be a delightful person and on numerous occasions had the opportunity to share a glass of wine at his store or on the course.

When George was no longer able to golf, he would come after golf was over and take place in the conversations with his friends.

I remember seeing George before his daughter got married at the LBTS Beach and he was excited to be able to walk her down the "sand".

A great guy who will always be remembered.

My sincere condolences to his family!

“ Dad, it doesn't seem real that you are gone. I talked to you on the phone just about everyday through my entire adult life and it has been tough the last three months not to be able to do that. Despite how close we were, I didn't really realize until my wedding how much of a "daddy's girl" I was. Thank you for walking me down the aisle and giving me away to Jeff. You can rest in peace knowing that Jeff and I will take care of each other, and along with Michael we will take care of Mom and Danny. You lived a full life dad and whenever my time comes, I hope it is the same way you went - surrounded by your spouse and kids watching football and drinking wine and having laughs and sharing memories through photos. There are so many memories that I will cherish forever. But you don't let to get sappy, so I will leave it at that. And as we would end every phone call when we ran out of things to say we would talk about the weather - we are getting flurries in Charlotte right now. Love you dad...
