George Robert King, age 91, passed away on Sunday, January 1, 2017 at The Lakes at Litchfield.

Born in Detroit, MI, George was a son of the late George and Anna King. He served in the South Pacific during WW II as a radioman, 3rd class, on the USS Hitchiti. He attended the University of Michigan, earning a degree as an Aeronautical Engineer and worked for 38 years with Bell Aerospace Textron.

Survivors include his wife Mary Bongiovanni King; children Philip King (Julie), Carole Hughes (Jon), Victoria Everhart (Erik); 5 step-children; 14 grandchildren and 2 great grandchildren, a sister Dorothea (King) Arndt. In addition to his parents George was preceded in death by his first wife Marilyn (Ward) King; and a brother John King.

A memorial service will take place 11:00 am Saturday, January 7, 2017 at the Garden City Baptist Church. The visitation will take place at 10:00 am. Burial will be held at the Florence National Cemetery at a later date.

In addition to being a loving husband, father, grandfather, brother and uncle,

Mr. King's greatest legacy was his passing on his faith in the Lord Jesus Christ; he also served The Buffalo Christian Center and in various churches as a deacon, Sunday school teacher and Bible Study leader.

Memorial contributions may be made to: Lower Cape Fear Hospice-Mercy Care, 8216 Devon Ct. Myrtle Beach, SC 29572.

“ Who could forget the fun times when Uncle George's family would come to visit? Driving around Detroit (such interesting sites he took us to).

So appreciated his intelligence and sharing books that I would find interesting related to Creation.

Can only imagine the greeting from family members he received upon entering heaven!

Sorry for the family's loss (husband, father, grandfather). He was a great, godly man.
