“ Dear Aunt Barbara, So sorry to hear about Uncle George's passing. I still can see us all laughing the night we sat in your kitchen when Judy, Diane and I visited and we convinced Judy that Virginia and West Virginia actually were 2 different States, the walks along the beach after dinner, and the trip to the store to buy as Uncle George would say all that crap! I still have it all. Unfortunately I am unable to make the services but will be thinking of all of you. Love
