“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort from your memories, as well as God's word the bible. Why do people we love die? Romans 5:12 says: "That is why, just as through one man (Adam) sin entered into the world and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men because they had all sinned." How loving of God to promise what is found at Revelation 21:4 which says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”

“ Ann, We are so sorry to hear about George. I was glad we got to see the two of you that new years day two years ago and take George out to lunch then. He will be missed by those of us that personally knew him at the GRPD. PBA 110 will be putting out a tribute to him on their website and on facebook. I will always remember his last day at work when D'Angelo and I took him the Glen Rock Inn for "breakfast" at 8AM when we went off duty. And then you showing up around 10 looking for him.

George was one of a kind and will always be remembered as a good guy.

“ Mr.Mr Miller's last night was one of fun and laughter. He had us in stitches all afternoon and night. His hearing stayed clear as a bell as he talked to the C N A walking /running down the hall stating he was going to do something. At that point out of the blue George screamed WELL GO DO IT THEN. Timing was perfect with that kind of thing all night.I am sad to see him leave but he was ready. I want to set up a mini golf and beer outing in George's memory. He enjoyed the milkshakes and grape juice.Rest in piece. We love you. The Roses.

“ I'll always remember the first time I met your dad and stuffed peppers were on the menu; Of course he had another name for them, that even now brings a chuckle. You will be missed Mr. Miller! Thank you for your service to this nation as both a soldier and an officer of the law. Our world is now dimmer with your light gone from it but the heavens above will now shine the brighter. Rest in peace sir.
