“ For as long as I can remember, Karen & I would get anniversary and birthday cards from Uncle George & Aunt Edith. They always remembered our special occasions. We always thought that Aunt Edith was the one who signed and sent the cards. But we were wrong. When Aunt Edith passed away in 2015, much to our surprise, the cards kept coming. It was Uncle George who had been sending the cards all those many years.

Uncle George was a very special man, full of love and kindness. Now he's face to face with Jesus. The author of love and kindness.

Peace to all the family as you grieve at this time. We are sorry for your loss.

“ Mr. Rouillard was a fixture of my childhood. He was steady, faithful, kind, and had a great sense of humor. He was an absolute gentleman. With men like Mr. Rouillard at the helm, you felt secure and knew everything was well in hand. He leaves behind a tremendous light in his wonderful family. I hope the sure knowledge your father is reunited with Mrs. Rouillard and Edward is a consolation at this difficult time. I'll pray for the repose of his soul and for his family. My deepest condolences. Sincerely, Mary Keyes

“ Theresa and I enjoyed our friendship with George and Edith for many years in Arbutus. We recently used a long handle fish landing net that George gave me before his move. He had taken it from a fan at the gate of Oriole Park at Camden Yards and it was not claimed after the game. That net captured some nice bass and catfish !!
