“ Dear Mrs Ray & family, We visited Friendship Baptist Church several times whilst on vacation in MB, and appreciated Pastor Ray's sermons, his heart for the Lord, and for people. We had been praying for your husband, and yourselves both individually and as a church family, since he shared his health with us in an email last fall. We are saddened to hear of his passing, but know that He is now rejoicing with the Lord, free from suffering & pain. We are praying for the Lord's comfort & strength for you all in these difficult days. In Christ, Pastor Chris Wyatt, Beacon Baptist Church, Cambridge, ON.##imported-begin##Pastor Chris Wyatt##imported-end##

“ Well its me little Bird. You always had a name picked out for me. I miss you so very much. The Church is not the same with out you. I remember how you would always say I will see you soon with a smile on my face and a song in my heart and a Bible in my hands. There will never be anyone else like Pastor Ray. He was so funny and loved to talk on the phone. He would talk your ears off. But I will miss thoes long conversations and the special birthday song he would sing. Mrs. Ray I love you so very much and pray for you every time I think about you. I know you are sad and so are all of us. But it wont be to long and we will be up there in Heaven with Him and Jesus and boy will we have a time. Danae##imported-begin##Danea Knight##imported-end##

“ I was saddened to hear of your loss. Though it has been many years since Rocky Mount Free Will Babtist i.e. Shannadoah Babtist Church, I remember that my parents spoke highly of George. I remember he had a powerful testimony, and a lovely family. He was very young to leave this world and I pray for your heavy hearts.###imported-begin###Denise Prince Hughes###imported-end##

“ To Emma and Family, Our thoughts and prayers go out for you that the Lord will strengthen and bless you during this time. You and George left imprints on the hearts of people everywhere you went. When George spoke of heaven and meeting Jesus, he beamed with excitement. Thank you for standing with, supporting, and sharing him with us during your visits and ministry while in Rocky Mount. “ Dear Ms. Emma, It is heartfelt sympathy that we feel for you and your family. Pastor George was a wonderful person and such a great testimony. We enjoyed all of the revivals he held every year at Shenandoah and looked forward to them. We will always remember him with great admiration. You and your family are in our prayers. We know GOD will help you through but it doesn't lessen the pain. I can see pastor George and Marty having themselves a good time in Heaven. Take care and God bless.###imported-begin###Ray and Darlene Jones###imported-end##

“ Preacher Ray came into my life when I was 19 years old. I came home from college for the summer and couldn't wait to hear the new pastor my Mom was talking about. The first time I heard him preach I left the service feeling so happy and hopeful. He had a way of making you laugh and cry all the way through his sermons...laugh at yourself, him, life in general...cry at the feeling of the Holy Spirit surrounding you in His house...because you could truly feel God's presence at the church filling your heart and the room with love. I went to see Pastor Ray at his house back in November when I learned of his cancer prognosis. Mom and I spent a few hours visiting with Ms. Emma Preacher Ray's wife and with him. Preacher Ray talked about the people he loved with such devotion. He was beaming over how proud he was of his children, his grandchildren, and his son-in-law, Jo. I saw him again Tuesday night. He was in a Hospice unit and not doing very well, but he still had his sense of humor..laughing and even correcting his wife's grammar as he always has. He thought I was Miss America so obviously he still had his strong sense of humor! I loved Preacher Ray while he was on this earth like a true friend and a father. I will always love him and thank him for loving me back. I knew I could tell Preacher Ray anything and he would love me unconditionally. I will truly miss his presence here, his voice, his laughter, his enormous smile. I am thankful, however, for the peace in knowing that Preacher Ray is with God in Heaven even as I am writing this and he is probably at the feet of Jesus right now praising him and shouting with joy. I love you, Preacher Ray. Thank you for being you. I will see you again someday. Like the good ol' hymn says, "When we all get to Heaven what a day of rejoicing that will be. When we all see Jesus we'll sing and shout the victory."###imported-begin###Traci Byrd###imported-end##

“ Dear Ray Family, While we did not know Pastor Ray personally, we have been praying for him for sometime. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bean, members of our church and care group, winter in Myrtle Beach and have sat under Pastor Ray's ministry for the past few years during their winter retreat. Their testimony of his ministry in their lives to us has been a real blessing. We celebrate with you his homegoing and trust that God's grace is more than sufficient for you at this time or your personal loss. “ Emma and Family, Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of his saints. Psalm 116.15 My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. II Corinthians 12.9 We have fond memories of you both, especially our times of fellowship around the table at the Carlton House Resturant and in our Home. We loved having you and George for revivals at Shenandoah Baptist Church. One of our favorite songs for such occasions as this is, "Until Then". Knowing, both our Hope and the words of this song are comforting. In His Love. Heart felt Sympathy, Carl & Lynn###imported-begin##Carl & Lynn Sellars###imported-end##

Brother George you'll always be in my heart and I'll be a stronger person because of you and be able to face the future of what demons it can throw at me. Now that you're at rest I know that youâ??ll be by my side to help me through the hard times just like you were there before. “ We were truly blessed to have Pastor in our lives, we are heartbroken that he is no longer with us. He is in glory now and what better place could he be! Our thoughts and prayers go out to his family we can't imagine how hard it must be on them. It has been very hard on us and hard to accept but we know this is all part of Gods wonderful plan. We can't wait to see him again one day when we will be in heaven ourselves. Love always, Rich, Julie, & Nathan##imported-begin##Rich & Julie Gregory & Nathan##imported-end##
