George was a very special gentleman. I was honored to have the chance to work with him on a rally and to be able to meet and talk with him. He will be sorely missed by all that knew him. My sincerest condolences to George's family and special prayers for his beloved wife Laraine.

“ I first met George walking his dog, Montana. I asked if I could pet the dog and he said, of course. We just moved here so we chatted a bit. Almost every evening I would run out to talk with George and give Montana a little pet. We got to know each other and quickly became friends. He has the best smile and he always will make you laugh, I guess that's why we got along. He adored his wife and soon introduced her to me. We had the good fortune to know this kind, gentle and super funny man. He loves to talk cars. I will treasure the times we spent together. Until we meet again. God bless

“ What an honor and privilege to be married to such a fine gentleman for 54 years. He will be missed by so many people, especially me. I have always adored you and George. You will always have your precious memories of him and he will reside in your heart forever and just hold on to that fact. I will miss my buddy forever. We will miss him. I will forever remember sweet George whenever I see that chocolate cake. Love and prayers for you Laraine.
