“ Due to work obligations, I sincerely regret that I could not attend Miss Georgia's funeral, but fortunately I was able to attend Monday's visitation. Remembering her, we all can attest that she was a loved, respected and admired lady. The obituary was so true stating that "she was gentle, soft-spoken, patient and kind with many close and special friends." Indeed, she will be missed in this world, just as she was dearly loved through her long 78 years. God blessed her with a loving family who loved, supported and cared for her. Sandra, Ron, Pam, Karen, Mike, the special grandchildren and other family members, please celebrate her wonderful life and fondly remember a grand lady. Take comfort knowing that she suffers no more and is now with Mr. Ibra in God's Loving Care. Thoughts and prayers are with each of you. Love you and God bless.##imported-begin##Fred Morris Jr.##imported-end##

“ Sandra, so sorry for your loss. We never know exactly what to say....but we look deep in our hearts to try to find the right words. May the intent of your friends to offer condolences and not necessarily the words used bring you comfort at this time. Here when you need me, no matter when.##imported-begin##Vickie Fredericks##imported-end##

“ Sandra and family, So sorry to hear of your mother's death. I always remember her as a quiet and soft spoken lady. She was also very sweet. I know how you feel as I lost my mom and dad already. You really never appreciate them until they are gone. Will be thinking of you in the coming days.##imported-begin##Barbara McLaurin Graham##imported-end##
