“ You will be missed. Its been so many years seeing you but not for the memories I often shared them with other. The after school rides home cause I hated ridding the bus to the talks of the loonie toones. You will always be part of so many life's. I pray for the family and the ones left behind for strength,courage and peace knowing God has you know.

“ Oh my cliff where do I start from the beginning at the restaurant watching dukes of hazard all thru school. I was one of the first you came and saw when you left the military . I will miss you so much I often worried about you and was hoping to see you again. God had other plans so just know I will always love you my brother .
