Andy, I've known you many years we all grew up together and although we all parted ways we always have those memories made as young teenagers trying to find a way in life..

I'll pray your two beautiful children find the peace in the months to come and know your no longer in pain Andy so fly high now and may you rest in nothing but peace!!

“ *Go Rest High On That Mountain Andy!
Fly High!!! No matter what, you still beat Cancer. As our family sits here shedding a few tears and looks back at pics and memories come to our mind of all the fun times we all had together we all realize that you are all better now. No more pain and suffering. Little Brayden will always have his Angel that he can call his "Daddy". No Goodbyes, instead we will see you later our friend. We love ya, Dude I was sitting here today thinking about all the great and crazy times we had as kids!! I remember Joe silebe. Trying to throw u in the camp fire cause he though we was messing around but we wasn't we was always just good friends!! I remember u coming to!my house n knocking on the door so we could go play in the woods behind the house or over to the pits. That day I seen u in the Dr office you looked almost just like the same Andy and u stopped me and said your Kim and I squeezed ur neck so hard I thought I was gonna break it. It was a bitter sweet day seeing u that day bc I missed my friend and u looked withered away to skin n bones I wish so badly we'd of went out for the drink just to catch up on old times and there sure was a lot of good crazy fun and funny times together. I miss u buddy til we see each other again rest well.
