“ I would like to express my sympathy to the family. I hope you are finding comfort in the time you spent with your dear loved one. Please find comfort in the hope expressed in the Bible at Revelation 21:3,4 where it tells us that mourning, pain, and death will be things of the past. I hope you find comfort in this hope. Feel free to email me to comment or if you have questions. Again, please accept my condolences.##imported-begin##Margaret##imported-end##

“Denise, I am so sorry for the loss of your mother. There are no words to say what a mother means and I can't imagine how you must be feeling right now. I do want to let you know how very much I admire how you have cared for her and done your best to make her last few years as comfortable as possible. Try to take comfort in knowing how special and rare your opportunity was to be able to give back to her for all her years of caring for you. You and Terry remain in my thoughts and prayers. I love you both.##imported-begin##Debbie Brown##imported-end##

“Grandma passed the day after her newest great-grand daughter "Katy" was born. How I would have loved for Grandma to meet her. As much as Grandma will be missed, I feel comfort knowing she is in a better place with Dad. So sorry we couldn't be there with all of you, but know you are in our hearts. We miss you...
