

Geraldine Marie Molkenthin

July 20, 2009

Geraldine (Cherie) Marie Molkenthin Cherie Molkenthin, 81, of Pawleys Island, South Carolina, passed away Monday, July 20, 2009. Born August 21, 1927 in Summit, New Jersey, she was the daughter of Ethan and Prudence Allen Alley and the sister of David A. Alley. She graduated from Nutley New Jersey High School where she met her husband of 56 years, Dr. Raymond J. Molkenthin. She was married at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Nutley and then lived in Philadelphia while her husband attended Temple Dental School. She and Raymond were long time residents of Bergen County, New Jersey, living first in Oakland and then Franklin Lakes, while his dental practice was in Wyckoff. They spent their summers at Beaver Lake, New Jersey where they owned a house until 1988. Cherie loved, and had a natural talent for, interior design which she was able to fully enjoy when she and her husband retired to Pawleys Island. She helped design their first home at the River Club and she used her eye for color and textures to decorate their lovely house at Willbrook Plantation. Surviving are her husband Raymond; son, Michael Molkenthin and wife Elizabeth Krall, children, Flynn, Benjamin, and Sophia of Rock Fall, Connecticut; son, Steven Molkenthin and wife Allison GushÃ©e, children, Allegra, Christina, and Octavia of Darien, Connecticut. The family plans on a private memorial service in Verbank, New York and in lieu of sending flowers, the family requests that any donations be made to the American Cancer Society and sent in memory of Cherie to The American Cancer Society, Myrtle Beach Office, 950-48th Ave., N., Myrtle Beach, SC 29577.
