“ My memories of my cousin are many but what I remember most about him was his thoughtfulness. He shared with others and never talked about it. He gave me and my husband a special wedding gift which every time I think of him I remember his kindness on that very day more than 55 years ago... he touched our heart then and continues to do so today. Second was his love of playing stickball back on good old Elm Street with his father, brother and cousins. I got to climb the roof to get the balls and waited for my turn at bat. Such fun times. Third, my husband and I loved to meet up with Gil and Monica to have lunch and catch up on family news whenever we were visiting. South Carolina. Thank you for all the fond memories growing up and you will truly be missed. God Bless You !
Love your cousins, Pearl & Wayne
