“ Veronica and family...We are so sorry to hear about Jerry. He will always be remembered as such a wonderful and fun character...a great asset to the entire Litchfield community, and one of our great neighbors in Traditions. We regret that we had lost contact with you in the last few years, but loved hearing from others as to your well being. Please know that we loved him and you, and will keep your entire family in our prayers. We will miss his smiling attitude toward life...With deepest sympathy, Anne and Bill Hartis###imported-begin##Anne Hartis###imported-end##
