“ My husband Jack (who is now deceased), and I have known Gladys and Wally for a long time. Jack and Wally met first at a golf course where they both worked. The four of us became great friends. Gladys and Wally invited us several times to their home in Schenectady, NY and loved being with them. She was always my idol and when I would tell her that, she would smile that beautiful smile. She was a lot of fun to be around and nothing stopped her from joining in any activity. I will always have fond memories of her. Sleep peacefully Gladys.
