

Glen Harrison Edwards

December 28, 1961 - October 25, 2017

Glen Harrison Edwards, 55, of Conway, South Carolina entered peacefully into the Lord's arms from his home on Wednesday, October 25th, 2017. He was born on December 28th, 1961 in Arlington, VA., grew up in Annandale, VA with his loving parents Harriet and Ralph Edwards, and cherished siblings Martha and Ross. Glen graduated from Thomas Jefferson High School in 1980, after which time he worked for the Washington Gas Light Company for 30 years, while enjoying his family and raising his three children in Gettysburg, PA. He retired to South Carolina in 2010. Glen had a lifelong love for football, music, and reminiscing with his loved ones. Some of his favorite moments were spent on the beach with his family, and fishing.

Glen is survived by his mother, Harriet Edwards of Conway, South Carolina, his sister, Martha Butler of Escondido, CA, and his brother, Ross Edwards of Conway, SC, his son, Glen Edwards, Jr. of Shepherdstown, WV and his daughters, Katie Edgar of Littlestown, PA and Colleen Edwards, of Shepherdstown, WV, his grandson, Jackson Edgar and many aunts, uncles, niece, nephews, and cousins that he held very dear to his heart. Glen was preceded in death by his father, Ralph Edwards, grandparents, nephew, Jarred Butler, cousin, Karen Klooster and uncle, Joe Hyer.

A private memorial service will be held with close family and friends in South Carolina. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made in Glen's name to the American Liver Foundation (liverfoundation.org): 39 Broadway, Suite 2700 New York, NY 10006

“ *Glenwood Blues, you've been a dear friend and brother to me for the better part of 40 years, how can I imagine you're gone? So many great memories with you & your (our) family; and speaking of, I always admired you for your love & affection of them. As I promised you, I will look after your mom all the days of her life, & promise to cherish and keep your sister all the days of mine. Until we meet again,
Jeb*
