

Glenna Younts Julian

November 27, 1947 - February 20, 2023

Glenna Younts Julian, age 75, passed away on Monday, February 20, 2023. She passed peacefully, holding her husband, Hugh's hand.

Born November 27, 1947, in Lexington, NC, she was the daughter of the late Ruby Younts. Glenna attended Lexington High School until she met and married Hugh in 1965. She finished her senior year at Boyden High in Salisbury, graduating in 1966. She worked at Wachovia Bank, and the United States Postal Service, but her main job was raising her four children and taking care of Hugh.

Glenna loved flying kites on the beach, playing games on her iPad, traveling with friends, and most of all, her fur babies! Her little Bitsy was never far from her side or her lap.

She is survived by her husband, Hugh Julian of Surfside Beach; son, Ken Julian (Jennifer) of Sandy Ridge, NC; three daughters, Donna Lyman (Will Lampe) of Concord, NC; Jennifer Egermier (David) of Rapid City, SD; and Beth Julian of Winston-Salem, NC. She was also blessed with six grandchildren, Taylor Lyman, Morgan Lyman, Carson Gaither, Ben Julian, Logan Lockhart, and Cole Julian; one great-grandson, Jacob Funderburke; and one sister, Brenda Piercy.

She was preceded in death by her brother, Don Broadway and two sisters, Betty Crowell, and Diana Essick.

A service and entombment will be held in the chapel at Forest Hill Memorial Park at 1307 W Old Hwy 64, Lexington, NC on Saturday, March 4th at 11:00am.

“ I'll always cherish the memories of moma and aunt Glenna sitting in the sunroom in Midway drinking coffee and talking...❤️ among many Thanksgivings and Christmas gatherings with the whole family
My heart hurts for all of you Ken, Donna, Beth, Jenny and Hugh.
I'm always here for each of you.
