“Gloria, you are one of the dearest friends I have ever had. One of the first things I loved about you was "truth". There was never anything fake. If I didn't want to hear the true answer I had better not ask you the question. You matched me in curiosity and it never took me and you long to get to the answer once we were on the case. Some of our adventures were halted by Joe and Hollis, but we set out with pistols packing all the same! I looked forward to our visits especially the ones at the round table, even though it will always be square...with a beer in hand, Hollis and I am going to miss you my dearst friend. I love you and always will.

“ I am going to miss you so much. There has never been a time when I needed you that you were not there. You seem to light up when you talk to the ones you love and care for and this love radiates to our hearts and we can feel your love towards us. You have so much spunk that nothing stops you. This always excites me because I know that with you the answer that I will get is, “Hell, yea! Let’s Go!” You have courage like no other woman I know, ready to face a giant like you are 10 feet tall, never backing down. Yet when I sit and cry on your shoulder, you are as gentle as a dove. Thank you for showing so much love and compassion, zeal for life and love for others. But thank you more loving me and my family...I love you!

“ I just can't believe this has happened and that you're really gone my friend. I absolutely loved riding horses with you Gloria and you still have the most beautiful Dappled Bay I've ever seen. I will miss the conversations we had while riding in Blowing Rock and I'll place another statue of a bunny in your honor along the trail (you know the place). I liked how you could offer such sound advice with so few words. And when you wanted to emphasize a point , it was always, "listen" and then the comment. I always thought that was so unique to you Gloria. It is written, "absent from the body,at home with the Lord." Rest in His arms Gloria and I will see you again at the appointed time, I love you and I will never ever forget you. Love, your friend and riding buddy, Darlene

“ I will always remember the good times we have had over the years. The crazy trip to Costa Rico, camping, playing cards, cruising, moving, fishing, and just being together laughing at Joe and Art. Please know Gloria will never be forgotten. We loved her and always will. God Bless all her family and we pray you will soon remember all the good times you had with her.
