“ Everyone here in San Diego will miss that sweet, spunky lady. She was so much fun to visit with. So glad we all got the chance to share a small bit of time with her.

“ On her visit to Ohio with Debbie and Mike, and Uncle Al we had a kitchen discussion about a car I wanted to buy. Dave and I were undecided, and Aunt June spoke up and said, "if it's not sexy, don't buy it!" So I bought a Red Fiat and I love it! Thanks for the good advice Aunt June. We love you and miss you.

“ Such a heartache, such a loss. Although I didn't personally know her real well, when our paths did cross I found her to be gracious and kind. You don't always have to know someone closely to have a sense of who they are. I do however know her daughter and her grandchildren well. Through them I know of her and can see that she was a very special women, one who will be missed greatly.

“ I remember June as a smiling and loving next door neighbor to my parents. Always a friend with a good word to say. She so enjoyed her dancing group and shared the singing group's concerts with me when I visited. Together June and her husband Al raised a lovely family and I am proud to call them friends. May June rest in peace as the lovely lady she always was.
