“ My mother and I were so sorry to hear about Gracie's death. We always enjoyed our visits, full of laughter and good memories. In my father's mental state, news of deaths disturbs him greatly, so we have not told him of his cousin Gracie's death, and so she lives on for him, and in our fond memories. Please accept our condolences.##imported-begin##David Casker##imported-end##

“ When I moved to the area in the 1980's and joined the Socastee United Methodist Church, Ms. Grace was assigned as my prayer sponsor. Over the years she always remembered my birthday and I also looked forward to her poems and kind words. It was the card I looked for most. As she passes from this world to the next, I hope her family finds comfort in a line from one of the poems she sent me. " Life is in the journey, and Not the journeys end." May the Lord embrace you all as your mom embraces me.##imported-begin##Dennis Overfield##imported-end##

“ Gracie and I met when we participated in a Disciple Bible class at Socastee UMC in 1993-94. The laughter, tears and the spiritual journey we shared that year will never be forgotten. In the years since I left Myrtle Beach, Gracie and I communicated via email. I will miss her very much but I know she is in Heaven singing with the Heavenly Choir.##imported-begin##Melissa Drumheller##imported-end##
