“ I will always remember Aunt Grace as this sweet, beautiful, little lady that always made me laugh. She would visit with my Grandma; they both would talk at the same time and still be able to answer each other's questions while continuing their own stories. She always seemed to wear high heels, fancy rings, and cute little hats that she said "Fred bought". Aunt Grace was so dear to all of us. I loved her and love her family.###imported-begin###Chrystal Edmondson Ball###imported-end###

“ Dear Marlowe Family: My sincere condolences to you. Aunt Grace was just so special to our family; her family & our family all grew up together. Aunt Grace was always the cutest, little, prissy lady and such a joy to be around. Who else at the dear age of 85 could get away wearing sweat pants, a large brimmed hat and three inch heels? That's just what she did one day she came to my place of work and brought me a pound cake! Everyone fell totally in love with her! She made their day! Her heart was larger than she was! I told everyone, "that's my Aunt Grace!" What a blessing she was to us all! May now she rest in peace with no pain! Fond memories will live forever. God Bless her!###imported-begin###Tessa Graham Edmondson###imported-end###

“ I didn't have the pleasure of knowing Miss Grace before she came to the nursing home, but could tell by the way she raised her loving and respectful children that she had to be awesome. I know she will be greatly missed, but rest assured, she is already in her mansion of gold.##imported-begin##anita##imported-end##
